Beath of Dr. J. B. Wheeler.

Sunday night, March 7th, aged 23 years, after an illness of fully four months. He was taken down a few days after the November election, with what was said to be typh the November election, with wast was said to be typhose fever, but it subsequently developed into a disease of the brain, with which he had been for some years threatened. For more that a month previous to his death, he had but very few and brief rational intervals, but during most of the time was oblivious to all that passed. Puring that time, his death was daily expected. His wonderful vitall, ty would have carried him safely through, had not the brain been gone.

Dr. Wheeler was an early settler if Doniphan County. and was perhaps the oldest physician, in point of resi dence, in the County. He was a native of New York, and had resided for some years at Wabash, Indiana. He came to Kansas in 1856, and settled at Palermo, where he open

Dr. Wheeler was a member of the first Free State Legie sture, elected in 1857. When the 13th Kansas Regimen as organised, in 1862, he was appointed Lieutenant Cole nel, and served until the regiment was mustered out, the greater portion of the time being acting Colonel.

Dr. Wheeler took great pride in his profession, and devoted much study to it—both the medical and surgical branches. His skill was held in high esteem by a large number of people in the County, and he will be missed by

The deceased had formany years been a member in high standing of the Masonic order. He was buried Tuesday afternoon, with the impressive ceremonies of the order.

Basides the numerous members of the craft, a very large concourse of citizens followed the remains to the grave, making one of the largest funerals ever witnessed in Troy, and attesting the regard in which the deceased was held.

ANOTHER MAN STEPS DOWN AND OUT .- For over a year past, up to several weeks ago, C. A. Stuart was agent for the Atchison and Nebraska Road and the Express Company, at Troy Junction. He was effable in his ways, a active Good Templar, and high in the Massnic order. Of course, he soon had many friends—and he naed them. vers rife of "irregularities." Although he received a alary of $1500 a year, and had but a small family, he seemed to be everywhere in debt; owing all the stores large bills, and having a number of our citizens on his notes to church man, drinking, gambling etc. cannot be laid to his charge. He had given a mortgage upon his horse and wagon and household goods to several of our citizens, to secure them in their endorsement. These he gave up, and they are to be sold by the Sheriff. He was about even with the Esilrond Company; but the Express Company is con-asilerably minus. Already five missing money packages have been traced to him, aggregating very closely upor $1000. As long as he was in the office, he managed to einde tracers, and stave off detection. It is possible that he will be arrested by the Express Company, zlement. What has he done with his monor, this express money, and the goods represented by his debts? He may not have had any view, but appropriating express packages was not honesty.

and how can this mania for stealing and emberzlement be checked? Every day we hear of men holding positions of trust, who have absconded with large amounts of their employers money, or have let large sums alip through their fingers that they cannot account for. ANOTHER GONE.-Thursday evening, March 4th, John Q. A Troy died at his residence on Cedar Creek, between White Cloud and Highland. Mr. Troy was one of the uldest suttlers in the neighborhood of White Cloud. He came to the town about the first of April, 1837, and a few days after moved on to his claim, just over the line in Brown County, where he resided for some years. A few years since, he sold his place, and removed to the vicinity places, but always remained in the neighborhood of High land. His disease, we believe, was pneumonia, and he was sick but a few days. He leaves a family, consisting of a wife and several children. Two of his sons are nen. He was buried at Highrand, on Sunday, by the Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member.

recollection was that his age was about 44 years, but our Highland correspondent sets it down at 48. Mr. Troy was one of the subscribers of the Chief, whose subscription dates from Volume 1. Number 1.

A PLEASANT TIME AREAD. - A series of important events and anniversation being soon to occur almost in a bunch, they are to be selebrated by a party, which will doubtless be the great party of the season. On Monday, the 15th, is Charley Brown's birth-day; Tuesday, the 16th, is Ot. Highy's; Wednesday, the 17th, is St. Patrick's; and on the first of April, Uncle Charley Highy and his estimable lady retire from the Highy House, which they built up. dance will begin on Monday evening, in honor of Cherley Brown; be kept up until the next morning, in honor of Ol. Highy; and if there be any who have not got their fill of , they can keep it up another day, for St. Patrick. Both old and young will be there.

tain number, at $1.50 each. But because we do this, many persons think they ought to have single copies at the sam price. We can't afford it-it costs us more than that wil justify to print it. We also wish to say, that club sub-scriptions must be paid in advance. We cannot deduct 50 cents, and then wait for our pay. Also, this: that club ons must be for a year-we cannot let the pape go for three or six months at the rate of $1.50 per year. We believe this is no more than fair, and do not want to spend time higgling over prices.

NEW REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENCY .- We are always glad to note the prosperity of our friends. It is therefore with pleasure we learn that our friend, F. M. Keith, Jr., with another gentleman, in Atchison, has ex-tended his business, and opened an agency which gives promise of great success. He is a deserving, reliable and ner we cannot speak from sequaintance, but are confident that Mr. Keith knows and is satisfied with him, which is that Mr. Keith knows and is satisfied with him, which is much in his favor. The Champion says of the new firm: Messra. Keith & Raymor, two of our well-known busi-ness men, have formed a co-partnership under the above firm name, to cogage is the Real Estate, Insurance, House and Loan Agents business, and their advertisament ap-pears in this morning's paper. Both gentlemes are well known as prompt, reliable business men, in whom implicit confidence can be placed. They give special attention to renting houses and collection of reals, and will make the renting houses and collection of reals, and will make the renting houses and collection of rents, and will make the buying and selling of real estate an especial feature.
